The Master Class Course includes daily half-hour individual lessons in an open master class setting, with some ensemble playing, yoga classes, and an opportunity to workshop aspects of harp playing such as relaxation, sound production and repertoire. The course concert has become a much anticipated fixture in the local calendar. Participants should bring their own harps if possible, or arrange to share. Contact Alice Giles prior to registration to enquire about the use of a rental harp (limited availability). The course fee includes communal evening meals for six of the eight nights.

The Teaching Seminar includes a range of aspects of teaching including how to teach technique efficiently, open discussion on different teaching methods and 'hands on' practice sessions teaching beginners. Presentations by teachers with different areas of specialty, exchange of ideas for experienced teachers, and tips for new teachers.

Accommodation (included in the course fee): The course is set in idyllic coastal surroundings near Bawley Point on the NSW South Coast, just 30 minutes north of Batemans Bay. Accommodation is in double rooms in self-contained cottages with their own kitchen, dining and bathroom facilities.
